Huajatolla Creekside Property

177.66 Acres

This Beautiful Ranch Land has an old log homestead that was built in the late 1800's. Magnificent views of the East and West Spanish Peaks. No covenants or restrictions hinder this property.

The Wahatoya Creek runs on the west side of this 177+ acre land formerly known as the Chastain Family Homestead. This Ranch has been in the Family since the 1870's and serves as a reminder of Days Gone By in the La Veta Valley. Wildlife run this property frequently and live water runs year round.

This property is a must see and just minutes from the quaint Town of La Veta. Contiguous listing 22-1160 can be purchased with this property for a total of 264 acres.
