Indian Creek Ranch: The sound of silence - a magnificent turnkey ranch. One of a kind with 3 homes, a Creek and 11 Acre trout lake. The ranch backs up to thousands of acres of conservation land filled with wildlife. Several herds of elk call this ranch home. This stunning valley opens onto the San Isabel National Forest. The main home has 8 bedrooms, all with private en-suite bathrooms. The ranch is just a mile from Historic La Veta, CO. The stunning main log home was built in 2001 and has many redundant systems in place (heating, power, water, cooking, etc) that ensure security and comfort year round. The house is fully furnished and includes a Western Art collection, many animal trophy mounts, and over $500,000 of French antiques. The home has 9 wood burning fireplaces. The gourmet chef's kitchen is amazing with top of the line appliances and granite counters.
